

October 1, 2026

Dear Parents/Guardians:

The second week in October marks the halfway point of Term 1. To help you check on your student's academic progress, we have scheduled afternoon and evening Parent-Teacher Conferences on Thursday, October 22 and Wednesday, October 28.

To accommodate all families, we are offering two conference options:

- Virtual Afternoon Conferences (12:30 PM – 2:30 PM): Held via Google Meet. Please register in advance at MyConferenceTime.com/BHR.
- In-Person Evening Conferences (6:00 PM – 8:00 PM): Traditional walk-in format on a first-come, first-served basis. No pre-registration is needed. Maps, teacher locations, and student schedules will be available upon arrival.

If you would like to meet with your student's vocational teacher, please choose one of the following options:

- Attend the evening conference on October 28.
- Contact the teacher directly to schedule an appointment between 12:30 PM and 2:30 PM on October 22.
- Contact the teacher directly to schedule an appointment between 12:30 PM and 2:30 PM on October 28.

Conference Guidelines

Time Limit: Teachers and counselors look forward to meeting with you. To ensure all parents have an opportunity to speak with teachers, individual visits are limited to 5 minutes.

Extended Meetings: If you need additional time, please contact the Guidance Department to schedule a separate appointment.

We encourage you to take this opportunity to meet with our faculty. By working together, we will provide the best possible education for all Blue Hills students.

Sincerely,

Dr. Paul Bavuso
Academic Director
